INFERENCE REPORT

The department of Information Technology has identified a few list of students who are all interested to participate in Technical events. The department has motivated the students and makes them to participate in various events inside and outside the college. The students had organized many programs in our college and participated in various technical events, hackathons. Hackathon combines the terms "hacking" and "marathon" and implies an intense, uninterrupted, period of programming. More specifically, a Hackathon is a highly engaging, continuous event in which people in small groups produce a working software prototype in a limited amount of time. Co- curricular involvement was particularly significant given the extent of student participation in all technical activities. The student participation in co-curricular activities is reflected in improved academic achievements like better placement and internships in top MNCs.
