

EDITORS' NOTE

Dear Reader,

June month being examination time, there has been a short teaching break. It is a month to rejoice on our accomplishments of the past academic year and plan for the forthcoming year. The awards the institute had received and the university ranks our students had received would motivate both the teaching and learning community to excel further.

The MoU we had signed and the community development programmes we organised define our commitment to our student and social welfare.

This issue will give you all a glimpse of our achievements and preparation for future excellence.

Happy Reading.
